

IN APPRECIATION

Warren A. Causey, RA 6 972 975

Specialist Five (E-5), United States Army

I hereby express to you the Army's appreciation for all you have contributed to its achievements.

During your career you have witnessed the growth of the Army into the World's finest and you have aided materially in this growth. Your loyalty and devotion to duty throughout have reflected the highest credit upon you and the military service.

I know you will continue in retirement to maintain the same lively interest and support of the Army as you have during your years of faithful service.

The best wishes of the Army follow you in your future undertakings. May you find in your retirement the happiness and good fortune you so richly deserve.
